

Thursday, December 11, 2025 HOLIDAY PARTY EDITION
10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

PRESENTER: Beth Ward, Skill Set Solutions

TOPIC: REAL TIME ISSUES FACING YOUR TEAM

DESCRIPTION: Our biggest and best lessons come from each of you networking together to solve everyday problems. So, what are you facing today at your agency? Do you have an exceptionally challenging repeat PRA requestor, staffing issues that cause schedule conflicts, a Records sealing that is not cookie cutter, A controversial request that had to be brought up the command chain. NIBRS errors, Lack of support or other issues that jeopardize your ability to make progress.

Share your issues so we can all work together to help resolve them and know how to address these concerns in the future.

Learning Objectives: Networking issues can be both productive and helpful for your stress levels. CLEARS above all else, is a group of professionals who understand Records and who can work together to get things done! Using each other's experience is a great way to train on best practices!!
